What is Life?

- Start with the nature of man
  - OT: holistic – unity, not union
  - Man is an integrated whole, not an assembly of parts

Dr. Norman Geisler

“Human beings are described as a soul/body unity from the very beginning. ...Genesis says, ‘The LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and

Dr. Norman Geisler

“breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being [soul]’ (2:7). That is, the whole unity of dust (matter) and breath (life) was a vital being.”

Dr. Norman Geisler

“...if both soul and body were not created as a unity, then the murder of a body would not be wrong. But it is, for God said, ‘Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed; ...’

Dr. Norman Geisler

“for in the image of God has God made man’ (Gen. 9:6). This, again, implies that the image of God includes the body, otherwise the prohibition against murdering a body would not apply.”

Theological Wordbook of OT

“...the OT view of the nature of man is holistic, that is, his function as body, mind, spirit is a unified whole spoken of in very concrete terms.”

Int'l Standard Bible Encyclopedia

Life in the OT: “It meant life in the body, the existence and activity of the man in all his parts and energies. It is the person complete, conscious and active.”

- Who planted the Garden of Eden?
- How did Adam get there?
- What was Adam to do there?
- What could remove him?

Homework:

- Spend some time with God in Deut. 30:15-20
- First, some background

- What did Israel do to become God's people? (Gen 12:2, 7)
  - Where were they? (Deut. 1:1)
  - How were they to get to the promised land? (1:30)

- Why second time? (1:26-33)
    - Did their rebellion break the covenant / promise?
    - The real problem? (1:32)
    - What did rebellion do? (1:34-40)

- God made a covenant with David and his descendants (2 Sam. 7:8-17)
    - Established forever (13, 16 2x)
    - Did it prove true for each?
    - 1 Kings 2:1-4

Observations

- Life is a gift from God
  - Irrevocable (Rom. 11:28-36)
- Experiencing the fullness of the gift is conditional (cf. Rom. 6:23; Gal. 6:7-8)
